

Ballet and Movement with Jarina

In this class students will enter a world of dance through play. The interactive exercises are designed to engage and empower each student. They will strengthen, stretch, and improve motor-coordination while developing the ability to focus for longer periods of time. Each activity is used as a vehicle to increase mental endurance, physical coordination, and creative expression.