

Parent Participation with Lauren

In this class parent and child will engage in gentle exercises focused on improving the child's coordination along with parent/child flexibility and endurance. It is a wonderful way for parent and child to bond and move together expressively.